Case No. 2:12-cr-00301-APG-CWH

ORDER

13 This matter is before the Court on the United States Motion for Supplementary Proceedings
14 (Examination of Judgment Debtor) (#60), filed January 14, 2014.¹ The motion is unopposed.

15 On or about June 11, 2013, Defendant Underhill (“Underhill”) pled guilty to two counts of 16 False Statement in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1001 and one count of Witness tampering in violation
17 of 18 U.S.C. §1512(b)(3). See Plea Agreement (#35). Underhill agreed that he would pay a 18 special assessment of $100.00 at the time of sentencing for each count. Id. Underhill further
19 agreed that “[b]efore or after sentencing, upon request by . . . the United States . . . the defendant 20 will provide accurate and complete financial information, submit sworn statements, and/or give 21 depositions under oath concerning his assets and his ability to pay” any fine, forfeiture, or 22 restitution ordered by the Court. Id.

23 On October 2, 2013, Underhill was sentenced to five years of probation on each count to 24 run concurrently. See Judgment (#44). Additionally, Underhill was given a $300.00 assessment
25 ($100.00 per count as set forth in the plea agreement) and a $3,000.00 fine for a total monetary 26 penalty of $3,300.00. Payment of the penalty was due immediately or at the rate of no less than 27 10% of gross income during the term of supervised release. On January 14, 2014, the United States
28

1 filed the instant motion requesting that Underhill appear before the undersigned Magistrate Judge
2 for a judgment debtor examination pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 69, 28 U.S.C. § 3015, and Nevada
3 Revised Statute 21.270. The United States further requests that Underhill be ordered to bring the 4 following to the examination: (1) his three most recent federal income tax returns with their 5 attachments; (2) copies of all personal and business financial statements concerning checking and 6 savings accounts for the past twelve months; (3) copies of earnings statements for the past twelve 7 months; and (4) copies of bills for the past twelve months. The request is made because the 8 judgment remains unpaid.

9 Except as otherwise provided, 28 U.S.C. § 3001 et seq. identifies “the exclusive civil 10 procedures for the United States to recover a judgment on a debt.” 28 U.S.C. § 3001(a)(1). The 11 term “‘Judgment’ means a judgment, order, or decree entered in favor of the United States in a 12 court and arising from a civil or criminal proceeding regarding a debt.” 28 U.S.C. § 3002(8). In 13 turn, the term “‘Debt’ means . . . an amount that is owing to the United States on account of a . . .
14 fine [or] assessment” 28 U.S.C. § 3002(3)(B). A “Debtor” is any “person who is liable for a 15 debt or against whom there is a claim for a debt.” 28 U.S.C. § 3002(4). Subject to exceptions not 16 applicable here, “the United States may have discovery regarding the financial condition of the 17 debtor in the manner in which the discovery is authorized by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 18 in an action on a claim for a debt.” 28 U.S.C. § 3015(a). Based on the record, the Court finds that 19 all of the prerequisites necessary to trigger discovery under section 3015(a) have been met.

20 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 69 provides that the procedure regarding “proceedings
21 supplementary and in aid of judgment or execution—must accord with the procedure of the state
22 where the court is located.” See Fed. R. Civ. P. 69(a)(1). Rule 69 further provides that “[i]n aid of 23 judgment or execution, the judgment creditor or a successor in interest whose interest appears of 24 record may obtain discovery from any person—including the judgment debtor—as provided in these 25 rules or by the procedure of the state where the court is located.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 69(a)(2). The 26 scope of post-judgment discovery is broad and the judgment-creditor is permitted to make a broad 27 inquiry to discover any hidden or concealed assets of a judgment-debtor. 1st Technology, LLC v.
28 Rational Enterprises, LTDA, 2007 WL 5596692 *4 (D. Nev.) (citation omitted). Rule 69 permits a

1 judgment creditor to obtain post-judgment discovery pursuant to the procedures set forth in the 2 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or pursuant to state law. Id. Under Nevada law:

3 A judgment creditor, at any time after the judgment is entered, is entitled to an 4 order from the court requiring the judgment debtor to appear and answer upon oath or affirmation concerning his or her property, before:

5 (a) The judge or a master appointed by the judge; or

6 (b) An attorney representing the judgment creditor,

7 at a time and place specified in the order. No judgment debtor may be required to 8 appear outside the county in which the judgment debtor resides.

9 See Nevada Revised Statutes (“NRS”) 21.270(1).

10 The requested judgment-debtor exam is authorized under the aforementioned law. Under 11 normal circumstances, the undersigned would express no view regarding the several categories of 12 documents the United States requests that Underhill bring to the examination, except to say that 13 such requests must conform to the Federal Rules or “the procedure of the state where the court is 14 located.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 69(a)(2); see also Alcalde v. NAC Real Estate Investments &
15 Assignments, Inc., 580 F. Supp. 2d 969, 971 (C.D. Cal. 2008) (“The judgment creditor may also 16 propound discovery to the judgment debtor, including requests for production and/or inspection of 17 documents.”). However, in this instance, Underhill agreed as part of his plea agreement that, upon 18 request by the United States, he would “provide accurate and complete financial information, 19 submit sworn statements, and/or give depositions under oath concerning his assets and his ability to 20 pay” any fine, forfeiture, or restitution ordered by the Court. See Plea Agreement (#35).

21 Based on the foregoing and good cause appearing therefore,

22 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that United States’ Motion for Supplementary Proceedings
23 (Examination of Judgment Debtor) (#60) is granted.

24 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant Steven M. Underhill shall appear before the 25 undersigned United States Magistrate Judge, Courtroom 3C, Lloyd D. George United States
26 Courthouse, 333 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101, on Wednesday, March
27 5, 2014 at 9:00 AM to then and there answer questions under oath regarding Defendant’s assets
28 and means of paying the judgment in this matter and for such other proceedings as there may occur

1 consistent with proceedings supplementary to execution.

2 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant Steven M. Underhill shall refrain from 3 effectuating any transfer of or interference with any of his property that is not exempt from 4 execution.

5 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States shall serve a copy of this order upon 6 Defendant Underhill at least fourteen (14) calendar days before the hearing scheduled herein and 7 file proof of service with the Court.

8 DATED: February 3, 2014.
